Reader's Opinions

Kind of pointless story of how Magnus falls for every single girl he meets, and naturally he only meets the hottest girls, and how he and his father agree to part ways. This is about where the series jumps the shark, and it's sad because it didn't have to be this dumb.

Magnus and his father are seemingly at odds, whenever Rod thinks he might be making progress getting through to him he seems to make it worse. How can he keep his son safe yet give him the space to work out his problems on his own? Well he is a spy who can blame him if he should...
