

I CAN SEE YOU

"Emma stuck her face to the window to watch the rain. Lightning in the background drew a fiery specter in the sky while her eyes traced the water droplets running down the pane like tears." Emma Willis is ten years old and has a secret. She not only inherited her grandmother's power of sight, she can accomplish much more. Like most children without siblings growing up amongst adults, she is precocious yet at times lonely. When a murderer is loose in Newark, a maniac...

Reader's Opinions

I have to start out by saying I have not read a novel like this in a very long time, but I am so happy I did! I Can See You...

I love mixed genres, and this paranormal thriller offered the best of two worlds: it was fast-paced, tension filled and impossible to put down. What I also enjoyed was that the main heroine was a ten year old girl with psychic abilities, which was a refreshing change from mostly...
