

FOR THE BOYS

Falling in love was the last thing Army pilot Carl Prosser expected to do while stationed in Korea. But he meets a young man named Tommy who's touring with the USO and does just that. Their relationship deepens through an exchange of letters. When the USO troupe returns to the front, Prosser devises an elaborate plan to see his lover one last time before the entertainers return to the states. At the last minute, though, there's a change of plans when the enemy hits...

Reader's Opinions

This was amazing! I felt a bit wobbly at the end because I thought I was going to get my heart broke but it was soooo good.
