Reader's Opinions

Ugh this was... a force. I had to force myself to finish it. the only reason it has four stars is because there were good parts. Smh I had high hopes for this but a lot of shit didn't get explained and a lot of shit was just like wtf is this.

Firstly, we have "Bloodlines" - Evin is due to marry, everyone is really happy except Evin himself. He is gay and has hidden it well, very well, until a particular "event" with his fianc. His world falls apart and then he meets Mason. Mason also has his own problems, but with her own unique style, the author takes us on a memorable...
