Reader's Opinions

First book I read by Poulson, and it was a delight! I read it in an evening. A familiar story line, but with a wonderful knew aspect to it that I can't quite put my finger on. Wonderful for an evening at home if you're in for good read!

Clair always writes good books that keep you guessing and books you just can't put down till you finish this was one of those make sure you have time to read because you won't want to put it down till you finish.
