Reader's Opinions

I liked the book a lot. Foster's specialty, creating believable aliens/creatures, lifts this above the average quest stories. In places I would have liked the story to move faster, but overall, it was an enjoyable read. My favorite character was the snake Samm, but the other humanized animals were good too. The rest of the cast paled...

Standard fantasy fare in which a group of beings, in this case animals that have been turned into humans, go on a quest to save their kingdom.
