Reader's Opinions

This new volume of Captain America is a chance for Ed Brubaker to get back to the brilliant work he was doing when he began writing about this character. Brubaker's grasp of Cap is superb - Captain America is a hero through and through, with a supporting...

Someone said, about Cap v6, that Brubaker finally got to do what he wanted to do with Cap, minus the whole Major Marvel Event thing, and that rings pretty true for me here. Steve's back fighting HYDRA agents and there's lots of flashbacks to The War, and Sharon is miraculously...
