

TRIAL BY FIRE

Attorney Joseph Antonelli finds that murder can be a very public affair-in this moody and scintillating novel of love, loyalty, and revenge in the Edgar Award-nominated series. Joseph Antonelli's never lost a case he should have won. . . until now. Julian Sinclair is a brilliant young man-already a law professor at Berkeley and a respected scholar-yet, bored with academic life, he...

Reader's Opinions

A little disappointed with the ending. Have two more books by this author and looking forward to reading them.

I really liked this, it was different. The only problem is when he set up to pull a twist I figured it out. Not bragging, just sayin'.
