

A POLITICAL AFFAIR

No one expected Stephen McEvoy to fill his father's U.S. Senate seat at such a young age, least of all him. The scion of a revered political dynasty, he's appointed to the Senate after his father's untimely death. Now he's in a tough election battle against an archconservative. When clever Anne Norwood interns in his office, he dismisses her as another pretty...

Reader's Opinions

I had a unique opportunity to get my hands on an advance copy of this book. I can tell you that I have genuinely fallen head over heels for author, Mary Whitney's characters and their pickle of a predicament. While the book, A Political Affair is set in the corridors of power in Washington, DC the actual heart of the story is set in the...
