Reader's Opinions

FINAL REVIEWWe have all experienced different dimensions in our life, to name just three: waking, deep sleep and dreaming. Yet when it comes to describing or imagining the afterlife, Ive read very few accounts postulating how awareness could shift between various levels;...

I found this book on a shelf at a library two days ago. The name of the author sounded familiar, but I did not know from where. I picked it up and opened it on a random page, which happened to be the first page of the short story "The House of Asterin". It was one of the most stunning things I had ever read. Needless to say, I brought...
