

HASAN

In the days of Sinbad, the handsome young merchant Hasan quests forth from Bassorah, seeking great wealth. But Lo! The hand of Allah sets the youth upon a rare journey--into the heart of deadly adventure, unearthly peril...and magic.Enslaved by the alchemist Bahram, bound into a camel's corpse and left on the Mountain of Clouds to be devoured by a roc--such is the beginning of Hasan's destiny. For he has entered a world of mighty jinns...

Reader's Opinions

This book actually got me to think about history and how the present builds on the past. If for no other reason, that made it worth reading.

Brilliant read! I love all of the middle-eastern myths that make up this book.
