Reader's Opinions

Well I finished it, I have to atleast say that first. It took me 5 days, for those that know me this means it was very hard for me to keep reading and it...

When Rebus hit sixty and was forced to retire, the introduction of Malcolm Fox left me wondering whether Ian Rankin was finally changing direction. As did many of his followers, I guess! Standing in Another Man's Grave sees the return of the cantankerous Rebus, only this time as a civilian assisting in a cold case...
