Reader's Opinions

As a lapsed golfer I thought this book might be interesting but it was more than that, not only rekindled my love for golf but it provided a wonderful twisting story of relationships in an every day setting in the vibrant city of Perth with more than a few laughs along the way. I'm now hoping for a sequel as I'm missing the characters...

Anyone who has played regular golf with a group of mates will empathise with Brian Kirby's characters Brendan and Bill. Absorbed by their intense rivalry, each week they compete for imagined sporting glory whilst provoking each other...
