Reader's Opinions

Good story to see it from the bad guy's perspective. However I would love to know Mab's thoughts when she realizes that Gin was the one who had dual elemental powers and the moment before she dies and she realizes that she brought this on herself.

One of the many things I loved about Jennifer Estep is that she writes mini books in between the next installment of the Elemental Assassin series. "Spider's Nemesis" introduces to Mab Monroe as a child and is told from her perspective. Once thing for sure, she did not grow evil, she was born that way. The young Mab Monroe was a brat....
