Reader's Opinions

I recently had the pleasure of reading Volume III of V.E. Ulett's Blackwells Adventure series. In Blackwells Homecoming, she takes to the sea once again and highlights the drama of the Georgian Age. In this adventure, Blackwell and his family, which now includes grown children, return to England, but quickly get caught up in the drama...

Great characters continuing from book one. I particularly enjoyed the descriptions of life and people of the Hawaiian islands.
