Reader's Opinions

A truly great book that kept me up - reading - all in just one evening. An evening that flew by and very little laundry was folded and put away. This isn't the first Kenneth Oppel book that I've read (or read aloud to my kids) that made me think it would make a fantastic movie. We loved it....

I feel like I wouldve liked this book a lot more if I was a middle grader. Not that I dont enjoy middle grade books, I do. But I didnt like the voice of the story or Wills narration (even though its third person, Wills point...
