Peek Inside the Book

When nothing can be done it is not a bad idea to do nothing. Janwillem van de Wetering, The Blond Baboon //

Reader's Opinions

Perhaps my favorite of the Grijpstra and de Gier books so far. The commisari is central and it is good that he is central. And the mystery itself is thoughtful and the characters intriguing. You think things are tied up but then there is an additional and reasonable twist that makes perfect sense. But still the mystery itself is not...
