

IMPERIAL HIGHNESS

Born to obscurity in a small German principality, Princess August Fredericka was destined to become one of Russia's most famous rulers - Catherine the Great. Married in her early teens to the deformed and immature heir, Grand Duke Peter, Catherine's early life in Russia was one of intrigue and plotting - often...

Reader's Opinions

Rating - 3.5 starsA reasonable enough introduction to the early life of Princess Augusta who ultimately became Catherine the Great. This covers her life from her summons as a teenager to Russia to be married to the heir to the Tsarist throne to her crowning following her challenge for power. I did enjoy this, I do like Russian history...
