Peek Inside the Book

Your trouble comes from years of wearing the wrong kind of shoes. - Jake Wexler Ellen Raskin, The Westing Game //

Reader's Opinions

This was a WONDERFUL, charming read. I read it to my son's 6th grade class (a very tough crowd) who actually loved it, interacted with it and begged for more books like it.

Oh, my stars Sam Westing is a wealthy but secretive and intensely private industrialist (think Howard Hughes) who manipulates a group of seemingly unconnected people into all living in the same apartment building. A couple of months later his body is found in the Westing mansion, which the apartment building overlooks. All these people...
