Reader's Opinions

I did not enjoy this book as much as previous novels in the Martin Bora series, though I still love the character and Pastor's depiction of his struggles to retain his humanity and moral compass with the demands put upon him as a Military Intelligence officer fighting for the Third Reich. Though issued as the fourth book published in...

Tin Sky, the fourth book in the Martin Bora series, is not as good as the others. There isn't any depth to the characters and there's no tension. This book just gently rolls along without much point. Since the first three books were good, I'll give the next book a try.
