

FLOWERS IN THE ATTIC

The four Dollanganger children had such perfect lives -- a beautiful mother, a doting father, a lovely home. Then Daddy was killed in a car accident, and Momma could no longer support the family. So she began writing letters to her parents, her millionaire parents, whom the children had never heard of before. Momma tells the children all about their rich grandparents, and how Chris and Cathy and the twins will live like princes and princesses...

Peek Inside the Book

It was the eyes. The secret of love was in the eyes, the way one person looked at another, the way eyes communicated and spoke when the lips never moved. V.C. Andrews, Flowers in the Attic //

Reader's Opinions

If loving the Flowers In The Attic series is wrong, then I don't want to be right.
