

UNMISTAKABLE

I hate him. I hate his stupid, laughing eyes, and his stupid, magnificent body, and the stupid way he looks at me and takes away all of the not-completely-insane parts of myself. The few I have left. I hate everything about him, but I can't ignore the truth lurking underneath the haze of my anger, beating its unmistakable rhythm: I want to stand in his fire. I want to be consumed. After a tragic crime leaves her physically and emotionally damaged, eighteen-year-old Stella Granger struggles to come to...
