Reader's Opinions

A grim joke and not worth the paper it's printed on.The author breaks the most elementary rules of scholarly writing in this volume by quoting the same references several times in a...

I read this book several years ago. It deals with the front line German soldier in WWII. There are a lot of personal letters, diaries, quotes, etc. It was informative and enlightening. I am not certain I can say I enjoyed the book. It did make me believe that some of my thinking for a long time has been inaccurate. The average German...
