Peek Inside the Book

All is fair in love and war; and if this is not love, it was the usual thing that stands as a counterpart for it.
Anthony Trollope, Framley Parsonage //

When a man gets into his head an idea that the public voice calls for him, it is astonishing how great becomes his trust in the wisdom of the public.

Reader's Opinions

Thoroughly enjoyable! I love the wit, variety and characterisation in the series and this wonderful book is no exception.

I think this may be my favourite yet of the Barchester books. So insightful and entertaining.
