Reader's Opinions

William Shakespeare's last play , that he wrote every word of, the burnt-out, but rich, distinguished gentleman , just wanted to go back to his little, quiet, pretty, home town of Stratford-upon-Avon, and relax, enjoy himself. After more than twenty, strenuous, nevertheless, productive years of writing for the stage, he needs the calm...

This is hands down my favourite of Shakespeare's comedy plays! It was so incredibly well written and the characters, the world and the plot were all so beautifully crafted that I just couldn't help but fall in love with this play!
