

PERPETUAL

“Some people say they don’t care. I actually mean it.” Mercy Green didn’t become this way overnight. Centuries of monotonous life have left her jaded and detached. Humans weren’t meant to live forever. But then again, she isn’t human. Adam is though, and his purity baffles her. How can he remain unpolluted in a world tarnished by corruption? It doesn’t matter. Her time in Birchwood Creek is coming to an...

Reader's Opinions

I'm always willing and eager to try a new to me author, book or series particularly when it comes to a paranormal romance that promises to be unique. Happily, I can report that here is one that met my expectations and delivered a satisfying reading experience. When I say unique, I'm referring to the fact that this one doesn't offer up...
