Reader's Opinions

The Bas Blue Catalog recommended several L.R. Wright mysteries featuring Staff Sergeant Karl Alberg. I have read those titles and am now venturing into the rest of the nine titles in the series. Set in a small town in British Columbia's Sunshine Coast, the people who populate the town make the stories compelling. That and the fact that...

The Canadian version of the English village mystery. This is the first of this series that I have read. The series characters are more amusing than the murder, though this series is rated highly in several places. I'll give some of her others another shot.
