Reader's Opinions

All of Laura Antoniou's Marketplace stories are amazing and this one is no different. It flashes between people attending the reunion while still telling the main narrative. All the characters are unique (I would expect nothing less from the author) and despite its length it was a very quick read! I didn't want to put it down! I will...

We all read smut. There's no reason to deny it. But there's no reason to read bad smut when there is intelligent, well-written, complex, and engaging erotica like this on the market. Just because...
