Reader's Opinions

I really enjoyed Janovitz's song by song breakdown of why he loves this album so much.

I like the concept of the "33 1/3" series, but the entries vary tremendously in quality. Janovitz's EXILE is one of my favorites so far. The author was a member of the late, lamented Boston band Buffalo Tom, and this slim volume concisely presents his charming obsession along with some song-by-song insights into the making of a classic...
